Dear Friends:

My office offers antique vehicle license plates to Illinois motorists whose interest in American history is shown through the vehicles they value and preserve.

Applying for antique plates is as easy as submitting the appropriate license plate application and fee, along with a statement verifying the use and condition of the vehicle. This brochure provides information on eligibility requirements and answers questions you may have on how to purchase antique vehicle plates.

Keep in mind that antique vanity and personalized plates also are available, which allow you to individualize your plates with a special message. See the back of this brochure for personalized and vanity plate fees.

If you need further information, please contact my office's Non-Standard Plate Section at (217) 785-1697. I look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,

Jesse White

Answers To Y

Q. How old must a vehicle be to qualify for antique plates?

Q. What is the difference between a bona fide replica and a facsimile?

A. A bona fide replica is an exact copy of the original in design, frame and mechanical operation. A facsimile is a close, but not exact, reproduction of the original; some contemporary parts are used. Facsimiles do not qualify for antique plates.

Q. What restrictions are placed on vehicles displaying antique plates?

A. 1) The vehicles may be driven only to and from an antique auto show or exhibition, service station or demonstration.
2) The mechanical and physical condition of the vehicles, including brakes, lights, glass and appearance, must be the same or as safe as originally equipped.

Q. What is the registration period for antique plates?

A. Plates are issued for a five-year registration period, expiring Dec. 31, 2004.

Q. What documents are needed when applying for antique plates?

A. 1) Verification of use and condition of the antique vehicle.
2) Application for title and/or registration with applicable fee and current ID card or assigned title.

If the vehicle is already titled in your name, send a copy of the title, not the original. If a title is not available, contact the Non-Standard Plates Section to inquire about obtaining a title.

Q. May I display historical license plates on my antique vehicle?

A. Yes. Historical plates representing the model year of the vehicle may be displayed, provided the owner has valid, current antique license plates. The plates and registration card must be kept in the vehicle at all times.

Q. How many sets of antique plates may I apply for?

Q. May I obtain antique plates if I have a vehicle currently registered with other license plates?
